Yes, I understand that The Children's Storefront and WHI have no responsibility for the upkeep of this free computer. I understand that Steve Bergen from The Children's Storefront has nothing to do with any fixing or upkeep of the computer or alphasmart and that after today, he will gladly talk to you about the Red Sox and Yankees but not about your computer or alphasmart!

Yes, I understand that if I need to use a cell phone at the workshop, I will go outside. I understand that no one -- not even my children -- should be sitting with headphones during the workshop.

Yes, I understand that by getting onto the Tech Saturday E-Mail Mailing List is the best way to get invited to the next Tech Saturday and that a family without e-mail should ask a friend or relative to get onto this list by sending a note to TS@cstorefront.org

Yes, I have paid $30 cash or money order (no checks allowed, sorry). I understand that this fee is to cover the workshop and that the computer itself is free

Yes, I understand that this computer "is what it is" and "it is an old refurbished computer". If anything is broken, I understand that the only way I can get a replacement is at the next tech Saturday. I am NOT allowed to come to Storefront during the week to seek a replacement of anything.

Yes, I am giving permission to use graphics and video from today's session as part of the www.techsaturdays.org Web site.

Yes, I understand that the Wireless Harlem Initiative will do their best over the next 6 months to get me Internet connected but that there are no promises and I understand the complications of plan A or plan B or plan C. Via my signature below, I understand that I will be patient and will call 646-450-5719 or preferably email support@wirelessharlem.org as often as necessary and not Storefront or Steve Bergen
